

A 21st-Century Course of Chinese as a Foreign Language: Integrated Course 2 (Chinese Edition)

A 21st Century Course of Chinese as a Foreign Language is a key project in textbook publishing of Shanghai Foreign Language Education Press during its 11th five-year plan. With the prominent Chinese linguist Prof. Wang Dechun at its helm, the course has been carefully designed with the students cognitive patterns in mind after solid research in Chinese-teaching and an extensive survey among Chinese teachers and Chinese-learning students at home and abroad. A welcome feature of the course is the use of up-to-date materials that provide familiar scenarios for the students.
