

Essays in Aid of the Reform of the Church (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Essays in Aid of the Reform of the Church Boswell informs us that on one occasion in 1763 he mentioned to Dr. Johnson that very strange sayings were ascribed to him by current rumour. Johnson. What do they make me say, Sir? Boswell. Why, Sir, as an instance very strange indeed (laughing heartily as I spoke), David Hume told me, you said you would stand before a battery of cannon to restore the Convocation to its full powers. Little did I apprehend that he had actually said this; but I was soon convinced of my error; for with a determined look he thundered out, And would not I, Sir? Shall the Presbyterian Kirk of Scotland have its general assembly, and the Church of England be denied its convocation? After more than a hundred years we are reiterating the great and dear Doctors About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
