

Ka (Ku Book 3)

Most often translated as Fire, Ka represents energy and power. It is also symbolic of passion, intention, and spirit. Our perspective shapes our interpretation of reality, and quite often we innately sense that our interpretation of this reality is in direct conflict or opposition to what we fundamentally know is the correct path or more importantly the truth. Ka presents readers with the opportunity to witness an individuals attempt to find meaning, purpose, and perspective in an unusual set of circumstances and events.
