

Judahs Sceptre and Josephs Birthright

John Harden Allen (1847 - 1930) was an American minister. He was associated with the Church of God (Holiness), and is also heavily associated with British Israelism. Judahs Sceptre and Josephs Birthright (1902) Allen is best known for his book titled Judahs Sceptre and Josephs Birthright, which many have claimed formed the foundation for the teachings on British-Israelism of Herbert W. Armstrong.

Judahs Sceptre and Josephs Birthright states that it is: An Analysis of the Prophecies of the Scriptures in regard to the Royal Family of Judah and the Many Nations of Israel, the Lost Ten Tribes. A review in the Baptist Messenger reported:

This is one of the most interesting volumes we have read in many a day and we confess that the arguments produced by Mr. Allen seem to be unanswerable. It is more thrilling than Western fiction. The description of the scarlet thread, the royal remnant, and the part played by Jeremiah in the preservation of the ruler for Davids throne, will cause you to lose sleep rather than go to bed without knowing the outcome. Overview of book: When this book first appeared, Britannia still ruled the waves and the sun was shining on the British Empire, which is why many came to believe that the British were Gods People and an introduction to the book claimed that: A notable and immensely significant sign of the times is the revival of interest in Old Testament prophecy that is beginning to be strongly felt in Anglo-Saxon countries. This book presents facts and considerations which everyone must sometime take into account, for they are destined to become important factors in world affairs. This book was written during the high point of the British Empire, and the prophecies about the Company of Nations promised to Abraham and the dividing of Israel had certainly come to pass, God brought them to pass. What is lacking is the final parts of the prophecies in (Deut. Chp 26 ~ Lev. CHP. 28) showing what will happen to Israel (Anglo-Saxons, USA) in the Later days when they got wealthy and lifted up, these prophecies show a moral degeneracy, leading to a fall, collapse and being taken into captivity by Babylon (Rome) and Assyria (Germany), to once and for all being delivered by the Messiah, along with Judah (The Jews)
