

Inner Peace: The Soul Self Remembered (Volume 1)

Do you feel that chaos is swallowing up your happiness and robbing you of the life you dream of? The vast majority of us are living our lives hoping that tomorrow will bring us the magic and joy that we just know is out there. There must be more to life on Earth than running the kids from point A to point B or making it to your job on time and getting the work done. What is this life really all about? Inner Peace offers the reader insight into creating a balanced state between the Soul Self and Personality Self, while maintaining a busy Earthly plane existence. In Inner Peace, the spiritual guide Andre offers clear and concise guidance on how to navigate the day-to-day activities and infuse them with peaceful energy. The reader will develop a new awareness of the subtle guidance offered by the Soul Self. As the path of the Personality Self and the Soul Self becomes more intimate, it creates an expanded Consciousness producing a life-path filled with love and joy. By studying the 75 topics discussed in Inner Peace, it becomes evident why the habit of focusing on lower scattered energy in the environment naturally occurs. The reader is taught how to replace the low frequency habits by focusing on the higher Universal energies when engaged in daily activities. The practice of changing the habitual frequency at the core of daily thoughts is what expands the Consciousness. This guidance assists in developing a healthy partnership between the Personality Self and the Soul Self. This new relationship of expanded Consciousness will help produce a life path that brings joy and peace to daily life. The change in your life occurs as you replace old thought processes with new thoughts and actions in response to what is happening around you. You learn how to see the real energy of a situation and become transparent to energies that are not a positive addition to your existence. Dr. Karon Lobrovich has practiced meditation and worked to integrate spiritual awareness into her daily life for over 30 years. Since she began channeling Andre, she has learned how to blend her empathic and clairaudient skills with daily Earth plane existence. She is a student of Light Body as taught by Orin and DaBen. Karon is a practicing Doctor of Audiology and lives in Arizona with her husband John.
