

English for foreigners - Drill 2: English for foreigners - Drill 2 - Course based on actions - Suitable for Language Schools

Suitable for language schools. The aim of this book is to provide the teacher with a range of commands and/or actions. The students are the performers involved in drills and/or activities as if in the United States of America. The method does not push the student and it is very efficient with children, adolescents and adults. The student learns the language naturally; it is a fun way to study. The student is able to understand the target language easily. The meanings of the words are understood by actions. The student develops the four skills: listening, speaking, reading and writing through actions. The method can be used not only with large groups, but also with small and individual ones.
