The serene Mary Elizabeths Archduchess of A ustria, Princess of Hungary, Boheme, etc., etc. Gtambattista Mandni A mong the many gifts and virtues which so luminously adorn the heart of your Royal Highness, the art of music occupies no little part of your thoughts and time. It is for this reason that I dedicate these thoughts to you, which are a collection formed from experience and meditations, and which I consider to have been of most use in my profession. This book has been published with the authority of your great name. To no greater honor and glory could I aspire. However, in reviewing my work, I found reasons for modification and enlargement. I trust. Serene Princess, that you will be indulgent and read this edition.
