

Stephan Melzl

Tender Horrors. A little girl, oblivious to the world around her, supports herself on an axe that is taller than she herself. The sharp blade that has just felled a tree points right at what is beneath her dress, lifted by a gentle updraft. The stump mirrors her rosy pudenda. Stephan Melzl (b. Basel, 1959; lives and works in Frankfurt am Main) has set the child into a detail from Fragonards rococo painting Swing, which shows a courtly lady on a swing inviting her lovers gaze to penetrate beneath her skirt; Melzls own picture bears the curt title Cut (2011). The meticulously calculated hyperbole of Melzls Renaissance-style oil-on-wood depictions of his subjects may be read as a sharp-edged barb against hypocritical visions of the idyllic life that we are only too prone to cling to. So the artists visual universe is about more than the ambiguous motifs: it aims to sharpen the gaze with which the viewer contemplates the artists theatrical productions and the diverse associations they evoke. This book is the first monograph about Stephan Melzl and features numerous drawings and paintings created between 1997 and 2013. With essays by Bernhart Shcwenk and Hans-Jurgen Hafner.
