

Secrets

Zoe is a Christian counselor who has a heart for hurting people. In the course of her work with some abuse cases, she finds herself in the center of a conflict. As the case goes to the Grand Jury, she inadvertently becomes embroiled in a national mystery. Current news stories add to the mix to make this a timely novel. Her life is forever changed as she escapes an assassination attempt and must flee for her life. The secrets she kept for individual clients are changed into major national security secrets. Even as she loses everything, dear to her, Father God enriches her with a new life. The author is Judi Daxon, (Pastor Judi) who is a real life counselor. Although the book is 100% fiction, her experience as a counselor shows in the detail of the characterizations. Her own dogs are models for the dogs depicted in the story. * * * * * Secrets answers some what if questions with a fun, relaxing read. Its been quite a while since I found a piece of fiction so hard to put down. I look forward to Pastor Daxons next work. Lisa Purvis Dear Judi, it was so good to meet you at the bookstore. I love your book. It is the most unusual Christian Book that I have ever read. The realistic things, politically..is uncanny..and the true character of how a little woman who stands faithful before God and the President..like Daniel..in prayer and gets mighty answers..definitely ,a movie should be made of this..Kathy M I met you at the library function a few weeks ago. I bought your book and enjoyed it very much. The book kept my attention throughout and is a true page turner. I passed the book on to my grandson and he shares my opinion. Maybe this will be made into a movie. As I read the pages a movie was going on in my mind. I hope we can meet again someday. Terry I finished your book Secrets the day after receiving it from you. It was outstanding!!! Am looking forward to your next book. The world is awaiting to hear more of your once hidden talent. Ann I just want to say your book was grrreat!! The minute I started reading it I found it hard to put down. I cant wait for part 2. Missy T
